

Santa Cruz County 4-H Program

Youth Development Funding

Scholarship Application

Sponsored by Tractor Supply Scholarship Fund

The Santa Cruz County 4-H Tractor Supply Scholarship provides developmental funding to off-set the cost related to participants in leadership conferences and 4-H camps.

PROCESS:

1. Complete application including:
 - a. Applications Information Page
 - a. Essay Maximum of 500 word typed Font 12

1. 4-H office staff will review applications and approve or deny applications within 2 weeks of submitted application. The amount of funding for each application for each event is based on the budget, number of applications, number of times applicants have applied previously for youth development funding scholarship.
2. After the event, applicants will present to their 4-H club members at a monthly 4-H club meeting a report of what they learned.
3. Another option is to present a workshop at a monthly 4-H club meeting utilizing the skill or lead a project that they learned at the conference or camp to help other members. Members 16 years or older will need to give a presentation or workshop at another 4-H club monthly meeting to inspire other youth by using their leadership skills in our county program.
4. Members awarded a developmental funding youth scholarship will need to complete the leadership/ 4-H camp presentation to club members within 60 days of attending the conference or 4-H camp.
5. Members will have to turn in a signed agenda (signed by club leader) from your club monthly meeting as proof you presented. You will also include a short typed description of what you presented on or learned from attending the conference or 4-H camp.

0. Members who sign up for a conference or 4-H camp that received a scholarship then do not attend the event are responsible for reimbursement to the 4-H office for the scholarship funds received within 30 days.
